

O Salutaris Hostia

Thomas Aquinas

Albert H. RoSewig (1846-1929)
Ed: Douglas Walczak (ASCAP)

Andante $\text{♩} = 90$

Soprano
Alto
Tenor
Bass

O sal - u - ta - ris hos - ti - a Quae coe - li pan - dis

7

os - ti - um Bel - la prae - munt hos - ti - li - a os - ti - um Bel - la prae - munt, prae - munt hos - ti - li - a os - ti - um Bel - la prae - munt hos - ti - li - a ro - bur, os - ti - um Bel - la, Bel - la prae - munt hos - ti - li - a 13

slight rit

A a tempo

Da ro - bur fer aux - i li - um. U - ni tri - no - que

Da ro - bur fer aux - i li - um. U - ni tri - no - que

19

do - mi - no____ Sit sem - pi - ter - na glo - ri -
do - mi - no____ Sit sem - pi - ter - na glo - ri -

24

a qui vi - tam si - ne ter - mi -
qui vi - tam si - ne, si - ne ter - mi -
a qui vi - tam si - ne ter - mi -
Vi - tam, qui vi - tam si - ne ter - mi -

28

no No - bis do - net in pa - tri - a.
no No - bis do - net in pa - tri - a.
no No - bis, No - bis do - net in pa - tri - a.
no No - bis do - net in pa - tri - a.

Albert H. RoSewig was born in Germany, at age 10 his family emigrated to the US and settled in Philadelphia, where he became director of music at St. Charles Borromeo Church. A position he would hold for 35 years. He was the conductor of the American Centennial Chorus at the Centennial Expedition in 1876.